VOL. 9, SEPTEMBER, 1931 NO. 9

Our Work

To the Congregation of St. John's Church:

The summer is over, the holiday time is past. Many of us have reason to be thankful for renewed health and strength, fresh vigor of body and mind received during these wonderful weeks of summer. As church people we realize that we are now entering upon a new season of service for God. We have the assurance that we are labourers together with Him. He invites us to go forward in His name and under His guidance. The fields of opportunity are white unto the harvest. Much good work has been accomplished in the past but there is much land yet to be possessed. To every member of our congregation we make an earnest appeal for increased interest and greater zeal in the service of our Master. Whether we realize it or not, a definite responsibility rests upon us each one. If we fail, the church fails to that extent.

The times in which we live present peculiar social problems which it is our duty to face. The church cannot, dare not, ignore the claims of the needy unemployed. We must be organized and ready to help in every possible way those who are burdened and distressed. Whatever other provision is made the church must not be remiss in her duty. It is an appalling fact that between six and seven millions of people in the United States, some three millions in Great Britain and many thousands in Canada are suffering from unemployment. In other parts of the civilized world the situation is much the same.

The various organizations are beginning work and will require the united effort of all members if we are to meet our obligations. The privilege of taking part in some definite way is open to all. Church membership means little to those who do nothing more than attend services and that in a desultory fashion. Only by systematic giving and sympathetic and active interest can we find joy in God's service.

The missionary needs of the church are pressing and we cannot disregard them. The men and women who have answered the call and accepted the challenge of Christ are dependent upon us at home for the continuance of their great task. Let us stand by them and support them loyally. A small increase in missionary givings through the Duplex Envelope will help greatly. The women of the congregation are invited to link up with the Woman's Auxiliary for work and prayer on behalf of missions. Lift up your eyes and look upon the fields. Pray ye the Lord of the harvest that He will thrust forth more labourers into His harvest. Remember the word of the Lord Jesus how He said, "It is more blessed to give than to receive." So shall we be blessed if we do His will, both in parish and home. Prayer, offering and effort are needed also in the home field. There is need for a larger number of interested workers. The work among the young offers a unique opportunity to those who would invest time and talents in a cause that will bring rich returns. The effort of the individual may be multiplied an hundred fold by instructing and influencing other lives. Andrew went and found his own brother Simon and brought him to Christ. That brother gained three thousand souls in one day. God is able to work through the humblest agents as well as through the most brilliant. Give your name to the Sunday School Superintendent or to the Choir Leader or the officers of the Men's Club as one who is willing to help. Link up now with one of the Senior Bible Classes.

We are indebted to the officers and members of the Women's Guild for splendid service in aid of the church wardens in their effort to reduce the church debt and to assist in other ways the work of the parish. We should like to see every woman of the congregation a member of the Guild. This would be a great achievement and would make for larger contributions of prayer and service. As already stated there is a work to be done by each and every one of us, a work which can be done by no one else, a work which if not done by us will never be done. May the word of the Master find a response in our hearts: "I must work the works of Him that sent me while it is day: the night cometh when no man can work."

A word concerning our Golden Jubilee. This should be a red letter year in the history of our parish. In November we are to celebrate the Fiftieth Anniversary of the founding of St. John's. We shall have a month of special services. Distinguished leaders of the church have consented to be present and preach at these services. Full announcement will be made in the next issue of the parish magazine. The prayers of the congregation are requested on behalf of these efforts; a generous thank offering is also asked for in order that a substantial reduction may be made in our church debt.

Let us unite in prayer also on behalf of the General Synod of our Church which is to meet here this month. There are many weighty problems to be discussed and settled, including the election of a Primate. It should be a time of inspiration and spiritual uplift to us all. God grant to his servants, the members of the Synod a right judgement in all things and that His Spirit may be poured out in rich abundance upon this the highest council of our beloved church.

Your Friend and Rector,
R. MacNAMARA.

TO OUR READERS—Important

We would draw your attention to our advertisers. Most are too well-known to need commendation from us but we wish to mention several new ones in this issue. Fine quality fish may be obtained from Towers (now under new management). Brown's General Store will give you real service and Cheeseman's Drugs are as near as your telephone. Arthur Gilbert will arrange any sea trips to the Old Land for you. Tom Gill is a real carpenter. Penhale Bros. will clean anything, Brock's bird food will rejuvenate your canaries and Dr. G. G. Elliott has a very interesting advert. At Dallimore's Red Indian Service Station you will receive expert and efficient service and Dorothy Austin will satisfy all your hairdressing needs. We ask you to support all our advertisers. They enable us to publish this magazine—do your part and support them and help your community at the same time. To all our advertisers we extend our thanks and wish them real success during the coming season.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We express warm thanks to the following members for donations towards magazine expenses: Mrs. R. Collins, Mr. S. Burgess, Mrs. Carson, Envelope oCntrib. No. 34, Mr. J. Pritchard, Mr. E. Mrs. Carson, Envelope Contrib. No. 34, Mr. and Mrs. W. Giles, Mr. J. Pritchard, Mr. E. Carson, Mrs. Morgan.

Our endeavour to publish this magazine free of cost to the reader is becoming increasingly hard. Donations, however small, will be gladly received and acknowledged by the Business Manager, Rev. G. F. Banks. An annual donation of 50 cents per member would place this magazine on a sound business basis.

SCOUT AND CUB NOTES

September brings school and home work, but also scout nights. We shall commence them on Sept. 22nd and start off for another good year. The past summer saw the Troop and Pack widely scattered—some to the cottages, lakes, farms and a few camped individually. The picnic was a real success in spite of the storm and at the jamboree we missed the District Championship only by a hairs breadth. We'll have it next year! The Inter Patrol Shield was won by the "Bulldogs" under Gord Palin; the individual Fisher Shield by Albert Garrioch and Ross Parmatier.

Will leaders notify Patrols about the first meeting Sept. 22nd. Cubs will meet Friday, Sept. 29th.

Parish Notes

Now that you are back from vacations we shall expect you at Church. Let us make St. John's a real spiritual home this Fall and Winter. The Church of Christ offers what you can find nowhere else and on the other hand she cannot carry through her mission without you. If we all put our shoulders to the wheel we shall make of St. John's a centre of real Christian endeavour and usefulness.

Both the Sunday School and Bible Classes will begin their meetings and work this month. Will you do your part towards marking the opening Sunday with a 100 per cent attendance? It is not much to ask and we trust you parents to do it.

Sunday School commences on Sept. 13th at 3.00 p.m.

Adult Bible Classes open on Sept. 20th at 2.45 p.m.

There are three things at least that you can do to help this magazine:

First, to pass it on to a sick or "shut in" friend. Second, To support our advertisers and third to send a donation however small, towards its operating expenses.

There have been, during the summer many beautiful displays of flowers on The Holy Table. To those who so kindly gave them we offer our warmest thanks and the thanks of sick ones who received them later.

* * *

During the summer there have been several distressing cases of sickness and some have passed to the "further shore" to be with God. Let us thank God for health and pray that those who are sick may be speedily restored. In this connection we are glad to pass on the grateful thanks of our Sexton, Mr. G. Robbins to those who so kindly remembered him during his recent illness.

* * *

Please study the bulletin carefully. On Sept. 20th we shall have as our preachers the Very Rev. N. H. Tucker, M.A., D.D. and the Rev. Canon Clough of Edmonton. The following Sunday will be our Harvest Festival. We hope to see full attendances each Sunday. Gifts of fruit, flowers, etc. will gladly be received on Saturday morning, Sept. 26th and assistance in decorating the Church will be much appreciated.

Missionary Excerpts

By HILDA MAY

"Not slothful in business, fervant in spirit, serving the Lord." Rom. 13-11.

A valedictory meeting was held in the Church on July 5th to bid God speed to Miss Elsie Shaw on her departure to take up mission work in the Indian School at Elkhorn.

The Rev. G. F. Banks in appropriate words presented Miss Shaw with a purse on behalf of the Evening W.A., the Sunday School and other friends. Miss Shaw is now well settled in her work and is finding ample opportunity to use the excellent all round training she received in the Old Land. Her latest letter expresses the hope that others in St. John's may prepare themselves and hear the call to serve in the Indian Missions. There are openings too for young men, especially those with professional or mechanical training.

Young people, is there any reason why you have not volunteered for some definite Christian service at home or overseas? Those whom God call He will equip.

TEEN AGE W.A.

The annual W.A. Camp was held again this year at Whitehorse, Lake Couchiching, July 7th-17th. Miss E. Thompson and Helen Clarke represented our church and the Camp was a most successful one.

Our Fall meetings will soon be starting—probably about the second or third Monday in Sept. Watch for announcements and remember that a hearty invitation is extended to all teen age girls especially those 14—16 years of age.

THE WOMEN'S GUILD

Guild activities commence this month with a social afternoon meeting at 2.30 on Sept. 17th. The programme will be in the capable hands of Mrs. Sharpe's unit and an enjoyable afternoon is ensured. A warm welcome to all new friends is cordially extended by Mrs. Meikle and the Guild members.

THE W.A. SENIOR BRANCHES

The different branches are all looking forward to a successful season's work. Full particulars in regard to each Branch meeting will be announced in Church and we wish you all "Good luck in the name of the Lord" as you re-commence your splendid work. Newcomers to the parish are warmly invited to join up with the Afternoon or Evening Branch.

The board meeting of the Diocesan W.A. will be held at St. John's, Weston, at 10.30 a.m. Sept. 17th. We hope that our Branches will be well represented at this important meeting.

JUNIOR BRANCH W.A.

To the Younger Girls of Our Sunday School:

The Junior Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary will hold their first meeting on Monday, Sept. 14th, at 4 o'clock.

There are many girls in our Sunday School whom we would like to have join us. We would be able to accomplish much more.

Below you will find a copy of the letter we received from the W.A. House, recognizing our gifts for the bales.

Come along and join us and share in the good work. Don't forget the date, Monday, Sept. 14th, at 4 p.m.

Diocesan Board W.A.

Dear Miss Laventure:

Will you kindly thank your Juniors for the very nice quilts, post cards and Xmas. cards. The latter were sent to the new hospital at Pasnesting for they were particularly attractive and will be much appreciated by the patients. The quilts were sent there also.

Yours Sincerely,
H. M. ARNON.

ADULT BIBLE CLASSES

The time for our Sunday afternoon classes draws near and we hope to see you all again and many new members on Sept. 20th at 2.45 p.m. We trust that all of you have enjoyed the summer

We hope to see a full turn out on the 20th Sept. and look for you to be present every Sunday that you possibly can. SUNDAY SCHOOL

On Sunday, Sept. 13th, the Sunday School will resume afternoon session and will meet at 3 p.m.—this will be Rally Sunday—we hope all the teachers and scholars will return on that date—refreshed and strengthened from their vacations and ready for the seasons work.

There is an urgent need of three additional teachers this season and anyone volunteering for this service will find a wonderful opportunity for service.

The film of moving pictures taken at the picnic is particularly good and will be shown at the first opportunity.

The assistance, co-operation and prayers of the whole congregation are asked that our work in the Sunday School may be fruitful of good results this season.
