

HOLDING DOWN THE EPIDEMIC

Apparently Drastic Measures of Health Authorities Are Effective

BUSINESS IS AFFECTED
Many Industrial Plants Are Crippled From Lack of Help

The drastic measures taken by the city to check the spread of the influenza epidemic are beginning to produce results, if the record of deaths since Saturday noon is any criterion. The number of fatalities registered at the City Clerk's office yesterday was 117. The figure was for two and one-half days, from the time the office closed Saturday until 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and compares with 87 deaths, the registration for the 24-hour period ending at 5 o'clock last Friday afternoon. This was the high record for the city. It may be that a number of the deaths which occurred during the week-end have not yet been registered, and that the maximum or peak has not been reached. This remains to be seen, but the health officials, who are doing everything that can be done to reduce the mortality, believe that the situation will bring the desired results, and they are hopeful that after this week at most the number of casualties will gradually decrease.

The total number of deaths from the epidemic in Toronto since October 1st and up to 5 p.m. yesterday was 619. It is interesting to note in this connection that about twice that number of deaths occurred in the city of Montreal, so that the situation in that city is much more serious than in Toronto. Ottawa also has suffered more than Toronto when the population is taken into consideration.

Influenza and Pneumonia.
Of the 117 deaths recorded here yesterday, covering the week-end, 50 were due to influenza and 37 to pneumonia. A number of these fatalities occurred on several days ago. For example, of the 37 who succumbed to pneumonia, one died on the 12th, eight on the 13th, fifteen on the 19th, ten on the 20th, and one on the 21st. Of the influenza fatalities two occurred on the 16th, four on the 17th, nineteen on the 18th, twenty-nine on the 19th, twenty-three on the 20th, and three on the 21st. October 22nd, however, has been a given day, as never registered at the City Clerk's office on that day, and it might be necessary to wait a week in order to make a more accurate showing of the epidemic during the first three weeks of October.

The outbreak of the more serious of business, many of the industrial plants and large stores and warehouses of the city being crippled owing to the large number of workers suffering from the malady. The Bell Telephone Company, for instance, has one hundred operators on the sick list; a large manufacturing company engaged in munitions work has a similar number under the weather; and others have fared in a like manner.

Many Nurses Ill.
There are between eight and nine hundred influenza and pneumonia patients in the hospitals of the city, in addition to thousands of cases that are being nursed at home, including a number of serious cases. Three thousand doses of the anti-influenza vaccine have been given to the nurses and attendants who desire it. There are no fewer than forty of the nurses of the Health Department who have the grippe, and the department is making another appeal for voluntary workers.

The splendid work of carrying soup to the helpless victims of the disease, which was started by the Danforth Avenue Methodist Church, is being continued by the Boy Scouts, who are also engaged in distributing literature to the manufacturing establishments and warehouses in the city. MR. RICHARD REID DIES IN LONDON

Ontario's Agent-General Fails to Recover After an Operation

Ontario's Agent-General in the British Isles, Mr. Richard Reid, died yesterday at his home in London, England. News of his death was received at the Parliament Buildings yesterday from Hon. Dr. Cody, who stated that as a result of an operation which Mr. Reid had undergone several weeks ago, septic poisoning had developed and that another operation had become necessary.

The late Mr. Reid was a faithful and efficient official in the office of Mr. Reid, the Acting Prime Minister, Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, said yesterday. "The Government deeply regrets the loss of this faithful public servant, who was held in the highest esteem, both in his official capacity and as a man."

The capacity and as a man. The late Mr. Reid was appointed to the office of Agent-General in 1912. Previous to that he resided in Kitchener, having for many years been a public school principal there, and subsequently connected with one of the largest insurance companies in that city. Mr. Ferguson said that Mr. Reid had given excellent and wholehearted service to Ontario during his term of office, particularly in connection with the war activities of the Government. "He has been indefatigable at all times in his assistance to Canadian soldiers in England, and will be remembered by thousands with gratitude for his kindly offices extended on behalf of the people of Ontario," Mr. Ferguson said.

Word reached the City Hall yesterday morning that fifteen deaths had occurred at the park repair house in the old Central Prison, and an inspection was ordered at once.

Many Soldiers Cases.
Many sad cases are reported. Parents have died and left little children without provision; in one case the father died and left a wife with eight children under eleven years of age. They are penniless and must depend on the generosity of the city in the meantime. There must be a large number of distressing cases like this. In many homes the entire family is down with the disease. Three thousand doses of anti-influenza vaccine are now available for troops in this district. It was said.

The Base Hospital the serum which they are using has results which are sufficiently encouraging for the continuance of its use, according to Lieut.-Col. E. B. Hardy, D.S.O., the Officer Commanding. The serum has been in use a week, but the O.C. was unable to give any statistics regarding the results.

Toronto is expected by the men at the Davisville Military Hospital at the death of Nursing Sister Grace Rogers. Although only at the hospital a month she had won all hearts. Her death was due to pneumonia. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Rogers, Listowel.

CALL TO NEW PASTOR.
High Park Baptist Church has extended a call to Rev. Albert Hughes, who for some time has been supplying at Jarvis Street Church, previous to which he was acting pastor at College Street Baptist Church during Capt. A. J. Vinick's absence overseas. Rev. A. L. Brown, the former pastor of High Park Baptist Church, resigned recently.

Young Couple Taken by Grippe

A double tragedy is the death of Mrs. J. N. Dickey, only 20 years of age, who died of influenza and pneumonia on Sunday, and the death of her husband, John N., yesterday, from the same cause.

The young couple had been ill only a week. An infant boy and a small girl survive the young couple, who recently came from Barrie, Ont., to this city.

If you are looking for something nice—really nice—in silver brushes, mirrors, combs and manicure pieces, for the dressing table, we can most certainly interest you.

The "Portland Bead"—"Shot Bead"—"Colonial Engraved"—"Engine Turned"—"Patricia"—"Beverly"—"Tudor" and other designs are included.

Some of them perfectly plain—some with a little touch of engraving—others again with somewhat elaborate designs—but all in exquisite taste.

"The Thunderer" and Trafalgar

A remarkable memento of Trafalgar Day, in the form of a copy of The London Times, the property known as "The Thunderer" dated Nov. 7, 1805, was brought into The Globe office yesterday by Sgt. W. R. Shaw, of the R.A.F.

The copy of the R.A.F. is a small, very small, compared with Lord Northcliffe's major publication today, consisting of only four columns of text, but it is a copy of the London Times, the property known as "The Thunderer" dated Nov. 7, 1805, was brought into The Globe office yesterday by Sgt. W. R. Shaw, of the R.A.F.

On page three there is an editorial panegyric which begins: "The official account of the late eventful day, which terminated in the decisive victory that has ever been achieved by British skill and valour, will be found in our paper of this day. The same paper contains a list of casualties on the British ships, a brief account of Nelson's last moments, and a beautiful poem, the final verse of which reads: 'Mourn and rejoice! Horatio's Well-pleased, behold a friend in herit! He smiles on gallant Collingwood. Mourn for your martyrs on the shore, Mourning for Nelson in his grave, Deceive and cheer the living brave, With loud, exultant, Collingwood! Loud hymns of praise, Your prayers, your thanks, are due to Heaven; That tribute offer, Be grateful for the champions given. By their great Admiral's side Fame's path they tread, True to their King, their country and their God!'"

Another Offensive Is Successfully Terminated.
An army of workmen have been engaged for many months in the construction of the Mount Royal Tunnel at Montreal, but the offensive has terminated. The tunnel, 3.35 miles in length, has been bored and was opened on October 21st, on which date the Canadian Northern Railway established through train service between Toronto and Montreal. The tunnel, 415 feet long, is situated at the foot of the Mount Royal, and is a part of the Canadian Northern Railway. The tunnel was bored by the Canadian Northern Railway, and was opened on October 21st, on which date the Canadian Northern Railway established through train service between Toronto and Montreal.

Embarrassing Hairs Can Be Quickly Removed

(Beauty Culture)
Hairs can be easily banished from the skin by this quick, painless method: Mix into a stiff paste some powdered cologne and water, spread on hairy surface and in 2 or 3 minutes rub off; wash the skin and it will be free from hair or bluish. Excepting in very stubborn growths, one application is sufficient. To avoid disappointment, buy the dolatone in an original package.

Financed on Charges of Making Liquor

Charged with trying to manufacture intoxicating liquors, three men appeared in the County Police Court yesterday. On the premises of Stephen Thompson, Holland Landing, was found a quantity of spirits, and a sack of brown sugar, and a can of molasses. The work tested 15.2 per cent. proof spirit. The defendant claimed that the mixture was a new kind of pig feed he was experimenting with. He was fined $200 and costs, or sent to jail for three months.

Major Geary's Tribute to the Late Lt. Richard H. Hocken

A letter which arrived in the city shortly before the telegram conveying the sad intelligence of Lieut. Richard H. Hocken's death in action was just received yesterday by Mr. H. C. Hocken, M.P., and in it Major Geary pays high tribute to a soldier who has since died. EMPLOYER MUST CLASSIFY HELP

Required to Know Status
Under Military Service Act of Employees

The obligation of employers in connection with the employment of defaulters and deserters under the Military Service Act have now been placed on a different basis, and the result will be that the employers will have to keep a check on their employees as regards their military standing. All the onus of verification of the status of employees is now placed squarely on the employer.

Employers, according to the changes, must now inform themselves regarding the status of any man before they employ him. No longer have they the right to plead inadvertence or ignorance of the man's status in any particular case. An employer must therefore make inquiry as to whether the man he proposes to hire is in Class One, and if he is in Class One whether he has exemption or not.

Must Produce Proof.
A man must furnish satisfactory proof of this exemption to his prospective employer. If a man states that he is not in "Class One" he must produce a birth certificate if he is over or under the military age, a marriage certificate if he is not a bachelor, or some satisfactory evidence of nationality proving that he is not subject to the act. "If he is a returned soldier he must furnish service if he has served overseas in any theatre of actual war or that he is exempted for other reasons on official records of the War Office, being a clergyman or belonging to exempted religious orders."

An employer who now discharges a man or who has his employee exempted from military service is required to notify the Registrar of such action. He is further required to ascertain the future address of the man in question and also notify the Registrar as to this.
