Nursing Them, They Have

HEAVY TOLL IN GALT

Epidemic is, However, Reported as Abating in a Number of Places

(Special and C. P. Despatches.)

London, Ont., Oct. 23.—Stricken while nursing three brothers who have since died, Mrs. John Bartlett, daughter of James Welch, a resident of Ealing, died from Spanish influenza to-day. She was thirty-three years of age. Her husband is reported in a Toronto hospital suffering from the disease.

London still has 100 cases at Victoria Hospital, but this is a reduction of 15 since Monday. Five deaths occurred there last night and one at the military camp, where there are but 24 cases now. The London division of the G.T.B. is badly handicapped, 865 employees from all departments being absent from work.

Heavy Toll in Galt.

Galt, Oct. 23.—The "flu" epidemic exacted its heaviest toll here to-day with six deaths: F. T. Oldfield, aged thirty-one, manager of Oldfield Auto-Station; A. J. Crook, a well-known grocer and ex-newspaperman, and father of Sgt. L. Crook, now with a Toronto battery and a well-known hockey player; Wesley W. Percival, a returned soldier of the 33rd Battalion; John R. Allen, aged seventy-eight; Harold R. Gooding, aged four, and Mrs. Alex. McNicol, whose son David died from the disease only yesterday. Mrs. McNicol's death is the ninth in the family in less than four years; two sons were killed in action, her husband died suddenly, and four grandchildren were burned to death in their home here in April, 1917.

Inoculation for All Desiring.

Belleville, Oct. 23.—The highest death toll in this city since the epidemic started was reached in the last twenty-four hours, during which five deaths have occurred. There are many cases of complications. One sign of improvement is that there are fewer new cases reported. On Thursday the Board of Health will have administered the new influenza vaccine to all citizens who desire inoculation.

Using Medical Students.

Kingston, Oct. 23.—The number of deaths is less than in the past week. Third and fourth year medical students of Queen's are posted to the General Hospital as "spongers," while both fourth and fifth year medicals are doing medical work throughout the district. The Provincial Penitentiary and the Royal Military College have no cases of influenza. The city was put out of bounds to cadets nearly two weeks ago.

From Other Ontario Points.

Guelph, Oct. 23.—The influenza epidemic has apparently reached its crest in Guelph, for only five fatal cases were reported to-day, although there are still a large number of severe cases in the city. A quantity of vaccine from Toronto came in this morning, but only sufficient for the use of the doctors and nurses. The repairs to the isolation hospital have been completed and this is now filled with patients, and a portion of the Salvation Army Citadel is also being used for hospital purposes. The ladies in charge of the Canning Centre are delivering pairs of vegetable and meat soup to those confined where there is no one to prepare the meals on account of the illness. Brantford had eight deaths in 24 hours, a great drop in the mortality rate.

Chapleau Board of Health has banned all public gatherings as a precautionary measure, there having been so far in the town only some mild cases of Spanish influenza; at churches, schools, movies and pool-rooms are closed. The disease is very prevalent in neighboring towns, nearly 100 cases being reported among the less than 200 population of F.P.H. operator at Geneva, is the first fatality reported in the immediate district.

The Funeral of James Pagan.

The funeral of James Pagan, aged fifty-six, an old resident of Whitby, was held yesterday. He is the third influenza victim to die in Whitby. He leaves his wife, two sons and one daughter. The elder son is on active service in France.

Reports From Western Cities.

Edmonton, Oct. 23.—Official reports received by the Provincial Health authorities show that 1,305 cases of influenza have been reported from all over the Province, but that this number is far from being complete, owing to the doctors not following their instructions to report cases as they develop. Dr. Jackson's office is flooded with telegrams asking for nurses, which cannot be supplied. Many outlying districts have no doctors.

Regina, Oct. 23.—Regina public schools closed to-day until further notice, owing to influenza. The Medical Officer of Health is down with the disease, and official details of the new cases for the past 24 hours have not been secured until a successor has been appointed.

Winnipeg, Oct. 23.—Colder weather and a lower influenza rate than at any time in two weeks gave promise to-day of an early disappearance of the disease here. But 19 new cases and one death were reported among civilians; eight new cases and one death among the military.

More Scattering of Students.

Montreal, Oct. 23.—A second case where the students of a college under quarantine were able to get away and go home took place yesterday, according to information reaching the Provincial Board of Health from Ste. Hyacinthe. The board ordered the points to which the students went to be placed under close observation. The deaths in Montreal to-day were 74 and the new cases 475. New cases are reported from the east end or congested portion of the city only, and the health authorities announce that the epidemic has died out practically in the west end.

QUEEN'S MAN APPOINTED.

Halifax, Oct. 23.—At a special meeting of the Board of Governors of Dalhousie University, held yesterday afternoon, Dr. Lawson P. Kingdon, was appointed to fill the chair in Dalhousie in the stead of Prof. Herbert I. Stearns, who was seriously injured five days ago by accidentally falling down an entrance of the General Postoffice. Dr. Kingdon is a graduate of Queen's and a Ph.D. of Harvard.

LET ARMY CHIEFS SETTLE MATTER

Senator Lodge Says There
Should be No Discussion of Armistice With Huns

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Washington, Oct. 23.—Disapproval of President Wilson's course in continuing the discussions with the German Government and in transmitting the request for an armistice and peace to the allied governments was voiced to-night by Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the Republican leader in the Senate. Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, Chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, approved the President's reply, saying it would create a political crisis in Germany.

"The President," said Senator Lodge, "says in his last sentence that if we must deal with the military masters and autocrats of Germany we must demand, not peace negotiations, but surrender. With this I am in full accord, as I was with the President's statement of September 27. In the first paragraph the President says that the present German Government is a complete victory, any discussion or exchange of notes with the German Government, and he feels that he cannot but desire to take up with the allied governments the question of an armistice. With this I am not in accord, for the German Government described in the first paragraph and that described in the last sentence are one and the same."

Would Discuss Nothing.

"My own view is a very simple one. There is no German Government in existence with which I would discuss anything. I deplore at this stage, when we are advancing steadily toward a complete victory, any discussion or exchange of notes with the German Government. The only thing now is to demand unconditional surrender. I would leave that to Marshal Foch and the Generals of the allies. When they report that the German army has surrendered and ceased to exist, as an army in being, then, and not until then, let the allies and the United States meet and agree as to what terms they will impose on Germany to insure the safety of civilization and mankind."

Senator Hitchcock made this statement in this note the President reaches the logical climax to his correspondence with Germany. He places squarely up to the people of Germany the issue of democratizing their Government and being accorded a peace of justice, or holding on to their military autocracy and submitting to an unconditional surrender. In my opinion, his note will create a political crisis in Germany. I believe the American people will fully endorse the firm stand he has taken, and it is very evident that the allied nations are giving him their support. An armistice does not seem to me probable for some time to come under the circumstances."

TO INFUSE VIGOR IN GERMAN TROOPS

Hindenburg and Crown Prince Issue Army Orders to Stimulate Resistance

(Associated Press Despatch.)

With the French Army in France, Oct. 23.—Field Marshal von Hindenburg, in an order to German officers in the field referring to negotiations for an armistice, declares he approves the peace moves and is obliged to support the Government. He asks that the confidence reposed in him in the days of success be continued.

The German Crown Prince, in an order to the group of officers under his command, reminds the officers of the responsibility they incur when they lose a position or modify the line in any way without orders. Copies of the order have been sent to the hands of the French. "Political events of the past few days," says von Hindenburg, "have produced the most profound impression upon the army, notably upon the officers. It is my duty to support the Government instituted by his Majesty."

"I approve the steps taken toward peace. The German army has a superiority over all others in that the troops and officers have never ceased in politics. We desire to adhere to that principle. I expect that the confidence that was accorded me in the days of success will be all the stronger now."

Must Hold Positions.

The order of the Crown Prince is shorter and almost curt. It says: "The exchange of diplomatic notes gives the occasion to recall my order, according to which each officer in command engages his responsibility when he loses a position or modifies his lines of resistance without express orders."

Another order which emanates from the German High Command says: "Diplomatic negotiations with a view to terminating the war have begun. Their conclusion will be all the more favorable in proportion as we succeed in keeping the army well in hand in holding the ground conquered and in doing harm to the enemy. These principles should guide the direction of the combat in the days that are to follow."

His mother, one brother, William, and three sisters, Daisy, Queenie and Mrs. Wm. Stockdale, survive him. He was a well-known athlete. He was prominent as a boxer and swimmer, and about twelve years ago was a runner-up for the Canadian championship in the 165-pound class.

MUST NOT RETURN GERMAN COLONIES

Balfour Says They Must Not Become Piratical
Bases

(Through Reuters Agency.)

London, Oct. 23.—In no circumstances was it consistent with the safety, security and unity of the Empire that her colonies should be returned to Germany, stated Right Hon. A. J. Balfour, British Foreign Secretary, in the course of a speech he delivered at a luncheon of the Australian and New Zealand Club to-day.

Mr. Balfour said it was absolutely essential that the British Empire's communications should remain safe, and if the German colonies were returned their original possessors would use them as bases for piratical warfare.

The doctrine that the colonies should not be returned, Mr. Balfour claimed, was not selfish and Imperialistic. It was one wherein the interests of the world were almost as much concerned as the interests of the Empire itself. If the Empire was to remain united, it was absolutely necessary that the ways whereby the component parts could communicate with each other should never again be at the mercy of an unscrupulous power.

There was a decrease of 10 influenza deaths and of 8 pneumonia deaths, which were 461 and 390, respectively.

Be Master of Your Health

ALMOST every man realizes in a general way that "success is to the strong."

But he does not always apply this rule in his own case and keep his own system in condition.

These days the worry and strain on the nerves is tremendous. Almost daily we are shocked by learning of the death of some prominent man.

The unusual strain has proved more than he could bear.

Many who have worked just as hard are standing the strain because of the attention they have given to keeping their vitality at high watermark.

Some are able to do this by outdoor exercise and a carefully regulated diet, while others find they cannot get back into condition without the help of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

This is the most natural and most rational treatment imaginable, for it supplies in condensed and easily assimilated form the vital substances which go to form new, rich blood, and thereby feed the nerves back to health and vigor.

As an illustration of what Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is doing for business men just read this letter:

Mr. William H. Kennedy, Gloucester Street, Cornwall, Ont., writes: "For the last two years I have been suffering from run-down condition of the system, gradually getting worse all the time. Last summer, during the hot weather, doing extra work brought on the climax. I was taken with nervous prostration, feeling dizzy, sick at my stomach, the nerves in my arms and legs twitching so that I could not keep still, while at the pit of my stomach the nerves would beat quite perceptibly. I have given many remedies a thorough trial, patronized several doctors, and spent hundreds of dollars without getting any relief. I was even in the hospital for a short time, living on eggs. I was told that there was no hope. I could not eat nor sleep, with no ambition to get around very much. I was so bad that I could not even ride on a train. While at the store a traveller advised me to try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and give them a good trial. After the second box I saw that I was getting better, so I continued taking them according to directions, until now, when I am on my sixth box, I am feeling fine, able to do my work, can eat well and sleep well at night. I feel that I cannot recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food too highly."

Any druggist will tell you what an enormous sale the food cure has attained. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Only the genuine bears the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., the famous Receipt Book author.
