During the same period 34 military hospitals, to-day reported an aggregate of 332 patients and 126 nurses suffering from the disease. More than two-score new cases have been admitted during the past twenty-four hours.

Dr. C. J. O. Hastings, Medical Officer of Health, announced just before noon to-day that as yet no definite warfare against the malady can be waged through the use of vaccines. Late last week he communicated with Surgeon-General Blue of the United States Government and Prof. Roseneau of Harvard University regarding this matter. Replies received to-day were to the effect that "influenza vaccine still is in the experi-

"Theatres and restaurants are not out of bounds as it is not considered advisable under the circumstances," stated Col. Irving.

Board Votes $5,000.

Without debate, the Board of Control to-day unanimously voted $5,000 as an interim appropriation to fight the influenza epidemic.

Secretary Harry Rowland, of the Health Department, asked for the money to be voted, and also for the use of civic automobiles to move patients, This, also, was speedily granted.

"Fresh air is good for our officials: let them walk instead of ride around trains. in cars," said Controller McBride. Dr. C. A. McKay, principal of the Toronto Technical school, announced to-day that all evening classes will be discontinued, beginning to-night until further notice.

Private Schools to Close

Private schools will be the next to close, under orders of the Medical Officer of Health of Toronto. "We expect to issue a regulation of this matter this afternoon," said Dr. C. J. O. Hastings, M.O.H., to-day. "It is desirable that the day pupils at these boarding schools should not mingle with the boarding pupils, who reside in the schools. It will do them all good to be out in the open air these days."

Bishop Strachan School, when it inquired to-day, was advised to give its pupils a holiday and get definite orders later on in the day. Most of the private schools have their own

New York has set the seal of its approval on velvet, which lends itself delightfully to the slim lines demanded by fashion this season.

One of the models is in blue velvet with slashed bell sleeves and a triple apron effect below the straight tunic waist. The skirt is button-trimmed and deftly cut to give a narrow effect, and yet provide room to walk comfor tably. Price $80.00

Another velvet frock in the fashionable brown shade has its waist-length tunic brought into a girdle which buttons in the back. Collarless and untrimmed, save by buttons, this little frock is unusually smart. Price $65.00

Our assortment of tricolette dresses is especially lovely. One of these is striped throughout by means of a dropped stitch. Smart girdles and graceful lines distin-guish these modish frocks which are priced from . $65.00

The Dinner-dance is suggested by an exquisite little frock in palest grey Georgette crepe on a grey satin foundation. It is knife-pleated from neck to the end of the long panels which are finished in heavy fringe. Bell sleeves with long knife-pleated frills, a collar-less neck and a heavy cord girdle complete this "thing of beauty". Price... $87.50
